

POWER ON THE SQ AIR 10

- When the target is powered on, wait for the target to light up and the color SPORT QUANTUM logo to appear on the target display
- If the target is in standby, you can either shoot at the target from afar, or disconnect and reconnect power supply after 10 seconds

POWER ON SQ TOUCH TABLET

- Press the button on the right hand side at the bottom back of the tablet, the application will start automatically at boot-up

DIFFERENT ACTIVITES

Choose your shooting mode (pistol or rifle) and select the activity:

• Training Tools

- For practice tools in coordination, aiming, trigger release, stability, hold repeatability, etc

For more information, click on the (?)

- Select the discipline or exercise on the left, then preview the target display on the right of the screen

- Click on the START to start the session

• Precision shooting

- To start a match, select the discipline from national or ISSF disciplines

- To start a precision shooting training, choose "free shooting"

- Click on the START to start the session

• Fun learning

- Choose a game or exercise

- Some demos aren't limited to a certain number of impacts

- Some games can be played with two or more players

USER SETTINGS

You can set various display settings and also export your data. Your scores are displayed on the SQ Touch tablet, along with the training, sighting or match duration

TABLET PARAMETERS

- You can set the language, background color, user profile, brightness...
- Close this window by pressing the ✓ icon in the top left-hand corner

WHEN YOU'RE FINISHED

- In the main menu, click on the "turn off target" button
- If the target is in standby, you can either shoot at the target from afar, or disconnect and reconnect power supply after 10 seconds
- To put the SQ Touch tablet in standby, press the button on the right hand side at the bottom back of the tablet. To power down, long press 3 seconds and click "shutdown" on the screen

